

STARTS TONIGHT AT THE ORPHEUM

The Million Dollar Mystery

DON'T MISS THE FIRST NUMBER

$10,000 For 100 Words
Read It, See It
Then Solve the Mystery

Charles F. Clarke spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Findlay.

Edward McCormack is spending this week with relatives at Springfield.

Miss Sara Worley left Monday for a visit with Miss Mary Pitts at Elm Mountain Lake, Bridgeville, N. J.

Sheldon Shepherd, of Pittsburg, Pa., was the guest of Donald Durnell, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bertha Bell entertained a number of her young friends with a dance at Bell's Hall Monday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy S. Rogers entertained a few of their friends with a dinner party Friday evening.

Miss Nelle Nelson went to Greenfield Friday for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Pearl Mahaffey, of Middletown, was the guest of her uncle, McAdow Robinson, from Friday until Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Ballentine was the guest of friends in Blanchester last week.

Prof. Charles Martin, who has been visiting his father, John Martin, returned to his home in Wilmington, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jennings, of Dayton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Faris, from Friday until Monday.

Misses Mary Evans and Mary Barrere returned Monday from a weeks visit Mr. and Mrs. Elgar Barrere in Circleville.

Prof. Lee Gutridge returned to his home in Newark, Saturday, after a visit with Prof. and Mrs. C. C. Patterson.

Miss Verna Van Winkle, of Chicago, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Van Winkle, of New Market, and relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Roush and children, of Cincinnati, are spending this week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Roush.

Miss Anna Steele, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Walter Merrick, in Cleveland, is expected home today.

John Sturgeon and John Dawson returned to their home in Uniontown, Pa., Wednesday, after a visit with their aunt, Mrs. H. O. Dawson.

Misses Elizabeth Henley and Nora Maroney spent from Friday until Sunday with Miss Margaret Higgins, at Norwood.

Henry Nesbit left Monday for a months visit with A. E. Pavey, at Wing, N. D., and his son, Gerald Nesbit, in Minnesota.

Fred Larkin, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Dick Rockhold, for a couple of weeks, returned to his home in Cleveland, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wilkin and son, Daniel, of Washington C. H., who have been visiting relatives here, returned home Monday.

On account of wet grounds the game scheduled between Hillsboro and Wilmington at Wilmington on Sunday was cancelled.

Miss Ellen and Dwight Rogers, of Mineral Springs, came up Monday to attend the dance given by Miss Bertha Bell. They were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Neal and John Canter, of Ironton, and Noah Rose, of Springfield, were visitors at the home of Jones Troup recently, making the trip in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hessian, James Corrigan, Misses Hazel Sweeney and Mary McCormack, of Springfield, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCormack, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Gall and daughter, of Washington D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gall, of Duluth, Minn., have been visiting Mrs. Margaret Gall and Mrs. Alice Burnett, the past week. They attended the Gall Reunion at Belfast, Saturday.

Stanley Evans, of Leesburg, was recently arrested, charged with stealing $75 in money from Samuel Carey, of near Sabina. When arrested he confessed the theft and returned $50 of the money. A part of the money spent had gone to pay a fine assessed against him by the mayor of Leesburg for shooting craps. He was bound over to the Clinton county grand jury by the mayor of Sabina, his bond being fixed at $1000. He was not able to give the bond and was sent to jail.

Noah Emery spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Greenfield.

Charles Schilley is in Toledo visiting his sister, Mrs. Ed Moore.

James E. Roads has as his guest, his son, Clifford, of Duquesne, Pa.

Miss Lillian Cohn went to Chicago Saturday for a visit with relatives.

WANTED—Two apprentice girls. Apply to Miss Alice Fallon.

Richard Barrett left Tuesday for Columbus to attend the State Fair.

Robert Polk and family were guests of friends at Sharpville Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Smith and daughter, Miss Mayme, of Cincinnati, are visiting Frank Zane and sister, Miss Kathryn.

Miss Nellie Brunner has returned home, after a visit with her brother, Foster, at Columbus.

Mrs. George Cooper and Miss Florence Brookbank are the guests of Frank Day, at Columbus, this week.

O. E. Stanforth spent Sunday in Norwood the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richter.

Mrs. Frank Lacy, who has been the guest of her son, C. M. Lacy, has gone to Piqua to visit relatives.

A beautiful production of "The Third Degree" at Bell's Opera House, Sept. 8.

Dr. Carl Ebert left Monday for Circleville to spend his vacation with his parents.

Frank Vance, of Hollowtown, was the guest of Prof. W. H. Vance and wife Monday.

James A. Swissheim spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week at Columbus and Zanesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Roush, of Danville, spent Saturday with C. C. Roush and family.

Perin McDermott has gone to Indianapolis to attend the Indianapolis School of Printing.

Ellis Pence, of Chicago, Ill., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Pugh and his parents at Danville.

Prof. C. C. Patterson has been the guest of his mother at Jamestown since Saturday.

Paul Downing, who has been visiting his uncle, D. M. Meneley, returned to his home in Columbus, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gossett are visiting Eliza Duvall and family, of Dodsonville.

Dow Landess left Saturday evening for a ten days visit with relatives at Warren and Marion, Ind.

Mrs. C. N. Winkle and son, Millard, spent a few days last week with John Crampton and family, at Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Teter entertained Mrs. Mary Miller, of Leesburg, at the Highland House the past week.

Miss Anne Favor has returned home after a vacation spent at Sulphur Lick Springs.

Mrs. Ira Hiestand and Mrs. C. J. Uible and daughter, Mary, are the guests of relatives at Mound City, Mo.

Harry Mercer, of New Vienna, is visiting his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. D. N. McBride.

Mrs. Bartley Stanforth was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Vance, at Greenfield, a few days last week.

Mrs. Ewing Newby will assist at Josephine Roush's Millinery Store this season.

Miss Flora Kyle, of Cleveland, is trimming for Miss Josephine Roush this season.

Miss Elizabeth Ridgeway and Mrs. Wm. Collett, of Dayton, spent Sunday with Miss Elma Carey, of Samantha.

Mrs. Nettie Wallingford, of Chillicothe, was the guest of Benjamin Wallingford and family Sunday.

Miss Anna Bell Renner, of Columbus, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Renner, on North High street.

James Swissheim and family are visiting relatives in Wilmington and Columbus this week and attending the fairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bayless, after an extended visit with relatives here, have returned to their home in Muncie, Ind.

Miss Mae Eckman, of Kansas City, Mo., will trim for the Elite Millinery Store this season. She arrived here Sunday.

Roy Bunn, deputy treasurer, is taking a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. G. E. Kesler is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conwell, at Washington C. H.

Miss Rebecca Stevenson went to Cincinnati Saturday for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Anna McMeekin.

Capt. and Mrs. Earl V. Miller entertained a number of their friends with a dinner Thursday evening.

Misses Georgia and Ethel Lucas, of Oxford, returned home Friday, after a visit with Miss Lena McCoplin.

Miss Mary Hanlon returned Thursday from a short visit with relatives in Cincinnati.

Miss Mary Hussey, of Cleveland, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Schumaker, since Saturday.

Miss Clara McMeekin returned to her home in Cincinnati Sunday, after a visit with her grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. Ezra Stevenson.

Miss Ella Bell went to Columbus Monday to attend the State Fair. She will visit her parents at Delaware before returning home.

Byron Rogers, of the McKeehan Hiestand Co., is taking a two weeks vacation. He is attending the State Fair at Columbus this week.

Mrs. Belle Fenner, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Al. Strain.

Mrs. George Cole, of Seymour, Ind., who spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McClure, has gone to Montana for the winter.

Miss Ona Cooper, of East Liverpool, arrived here Sunday. She will be employed as trimmer this season for Miss Ruth Kent, at the Ron Ton.

Mrs. Will Collett has returned to her home in Dayton, after a two weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ridgway.

Miss Lora Underwood entertained with a 500 party Thursday evening in honor of Miss Clara McMeekin, of Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Langley returned Monday from a weeks stay at Sulphur Lick Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Watts, of Grand Junction, Io., after a week's visit with relatives at Marshall and here, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Baskin and son, Roland, of Cleveland, after a short visit with friends and relatives here and near Belfast, returned home Saturday.

Miss Ruth Cole, who has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McClure, left Sunday for a visit with friends in Seymour, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Roush and daughter, Miss Josephine, spent Sunday at Beaver's Mills, the guests of C. A. Reaver and family.

Rev. B. F. Smith is entertaining his father, Rev. Smith, of Mound City, Va. Rev. Smith filled the pulpit at the Christian Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Faris and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jennings spent Monday at the home of Frank Foust, near Pricetown.

Rev. Fr. John Burke, of St. Martins, has been appointed priest of St. Mary's Catholic church, succeeding Rev. Fr. McLeigh, who has gone to Ireland.

Among those from this county who are attending the State Fair are W. E. Calvert, C. L. Vance, C. C. Winkle, Philip Hughes and W. E. Borden.

Miss Alice Hussey, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Schumacher, went to Columbia, Pa., Monday, where she will teach school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fairley were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Donald Purdy, in Madisonville, Sunday.

Mrs. Affie Chaney, of Westboro, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Duckwall, went to Highland Saturday to visit her son.

Miss Ladora Ream returned home Sunday from visiting her sister, Mrs. I. H. Anderson, at Windsor. Mrs. Anderson is sick.

Mrs. George Clark and daughter, Caryl, returned home from Portsmouth Monday, where they had been visiting for a week.

Mrs. O. E. Stanforth and daughter, Margaret, left Tuesday for a week's visit with Prof. and Mrs. Peabody, at Norwood.

Fall and Winter Styles OF 1914

WILL BE READY

Friday, September 4, 1914

PATTERN HATS

TAILORED HATS

MILLINERY NOVELTIES

YOUR INSPECTION IS CORDIALLY INVITED

JOSEPHINE ROUSH

OPERA HOUSE BLOCK

Miss Callie McLaughlin, of Columbus Wholesale House, is head maker at Josephine Roush's Millinery Store this season.

Mr. Addison and Mr. Moore, of the State Bureau of Accounting, are here examining the books of the clerks and treasurers of all townships and school districts.

Mrs. Louise R. Denver, widow of Gov. J. W. Denver, once governor of Colorado, and mother of former Congressman M. R. Denver, died at her home in Wilmington early Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Campbell and daughter, Olive, and Miss Lydia Parkes motored to Manchester Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Truman Alexander.

The Queen Esther Circle met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Cunningham and Opal Burton on Monday night. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mrs. James Elliott and grandson, Forest Gough, of French, N. M., were the guests of the former's son, Ernest, a few days last week. They went to Springfield Monday to visit relatives.

The Ladies Aid Society of Dallas Christian church will give an Ice Cream social at the school house, Saturday night, Sept. 5. Everybody is invited.

A representative of a Cincinnati firm was in this city last Thursday examining the plans and specifications for the construction of the three State Highway roads to be built in this county this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cox, who have been spending the summer with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Charles, left Wednesday for Howe, Ind., where they are employed in the Howe Military Institute.

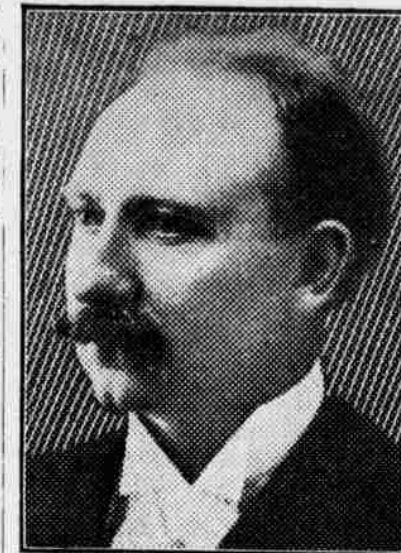

Prof. and Mrs. Fay McMullen, who have been spending the summer with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McMullen, and the latter's mother, Mrs. Charles Harsha, returned to their home in Columbiana, Saturday.

Rev. Willite will preach at the M. E. Church next Monday night. He will be in town Monday enroute to Wichita, Kas., where he and Prof. Shaul will hold a great meeting. A large crowd is expected to hear him.

Andy Fox and J. E. Utman went to Louisville, Ky., Sunday to attend the National Encampment of United Spanish War Veterans. The former was delegate and the latter alternate from Gorman Camp.

Bernice Davis, aged one year and eight months, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, on W. South street Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. Death resulted from cholera infantum. Funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, burial in Hillsboro cemetery.

An all day meeting will be held at the New Market Presbyterian church Sunday, Sept. 6. The morning service will consist of a special Children's sermon by Rev. Kerr, followed by a basket dinner in the church grove. In the afternoon there will be an out-door C. E. Rally and Home Coming of absent members. You are invited to attend.

JOHN W. VOGEL,
THE MINSTREL KING.

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels is said to be the most conspicuous organization traveling, presenting a long and varied program, teeming with crisp bon-mots, witty flings, and new magnetic features, up-to-date, up to demand, and up to every expectation, giving equally excellent enjoyment to everybody. This company of merry-makers will appear at Bell's Opera House on Saturday, Sept. 5, and as Manager Vogel has always given the minstrel-loving public a high class entertainment, the house should be packed.

Wilbur McClure spent Saturday and Sunday with the Boy Scouts at Ripley.

Mr. and Mrs. James Richards, of Sabina, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Burch Kiber.

SEED RYE

We have just unloaded a car of home grown rye, and have coming a car Michigan rye, and the price is 95c per bu.

RICHARDS MILL

9-10

For Every Living Thing On The Farm.

Free; a 500 page book on the treatment and care of "Every Living Thing on the Farm": horses, cattle, dogs, sheep, hogs and poultry, by Humphreys' Veterinary Specifics; also a stable chart for ready reference, to hang up. Free by mail on application. Address Humphreys Homeo Med. Co., Corner Williams & Ann Sts., N. Y. adv

Notice

John Pfarr will clean and press and mend that suit until it will look as good as new. I also do dry cleaning. Give me a call. Brunner's Shoe Shop. adv

Phaeton Seat Buggy

It is light and graceful with snappy lines. Exactly right for the young man. Very few manufacturers have discovered the art of eliminating "clumsiness" from their Phaeton Seat Buggies.

We use the Ton Don Axle—with case-hardened steel spindles—they cannot be scratched with the sharpest file. The boxes are lined with phosphor bronze like your electric motor or cream separator.

We have a large stock and can supply you today.

The M. F. Carroll & Sons Co.

HILLSBORO, OHIO.